

Success at Sydney for Rosebrook Stock Horses

Australian Stock Horse owner and trainer Terry Blake scooped the prize pool at this years Sydney Royal Show. Rosebrook Australian Stock Horse Stud and the Blake Family, based at Muswellbrook NSW, has been breeding horses for over 100 years and has produced champions in many disciplines. With wins and placings in many disciplines including Working, Hack, Led, Campdraft and Polocrosse the 2008 Sydney Royal Show saw the Rosebrook breeding carry on that tradition.

Wins and Placings were:

BOOERIE CREEK FLYING STAR - Champion Working ASH

ROSEBROOK BALOU ROSE - Champion ASH Hack, ASHLA, R.M.Williams Trophy Saddle

Rosebrook Team wins Teams Campdraft for third successive year

ROSEBROOK STERLING - Champion Mens ASH Senior Polocrosse

ROSEBROOK FERRARI - Placed in Led Mare, Working Mare and awarded Best No 3 in Junior Polocrosse. Equal 6th in R.M.Williams Pointscore.

ROSEBROOK BALOU ROSE and Loretta Lawson claimed the ASH Hack Championship and the ASHLA class. With a second place in the Stockman's Turnout to add to the tally, ROSEBROOK BALOU ROSE was awarded the R.M.Williams' Trophy Saddle and Breastplate for the Most Versatile Australian Stock Horse. Loretta and ROSEBROOK BALOU ROSE are pictured here with Rob Vickery, RAS President. Photo by Narelle Wockner

Loretta Lawson riding ROSEBROOK BALOU ROSE and Colin Parkinson riding BOOERIE CREEK FLYING STAR show-off their winnings.

Rosebrook

Quality • Temperament • Performance

For further information on Rosebrook Australian Stock Horse Stud, visit www.rosebrookashstud.com.au or contact Terry Blake on (02) 6543 1492 or email rosebrk@bigpond.net.au.